A. Pope submitted his report on Sabbath schools as follows: The letters from the several churches to this association show that about one-fourth of the churches have Sabbath school. We regret that so small a number report schools and that such little interest is manifested in this important work. We look upon the sabbath schools as a great factor in training the minds of the young for a proper reception of the gospel.

Respectfully submitted,

A. POPE, Chairman.

Cothran read his report on deceased ministers: Your committee on deceased ministers are glad to report, that after diligently inquiring and hearing the letters from the several churches we find that none of the ministers of our associations have died since our last meeting, for which we are very grateful to our Heavenly Father for His protecting care in sparing the lives of our ministers.

W. S. COTHMAN Chairman

The report was adopted.

Report on Religious Literature

was submitted by J. D. Holtzclaw as follows: We recommend that the brethren throughout our association take and read some good religious journal. We recommend the Alabama Baptist and Home and Foreign Mission Journals. We further suggest that the Sabbath schools use the Baptist literature, published at Nashville, Tenn., in connection with the Bible. Brethren, we especially recommend the reading of the Bible above all other literature, as we are commanded in the blessed word of God, to search the scriptures. We think the Bible should be read and studied extensively, both in the Sunday school and in the home. We also recommend the use of the old Baptist hymn book for church music in preference to the great variety of new books which are being introduced, as we believe them to be more in keeping with religious services.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. HOLTZCLAW, Chairman.

The report was adopted after being discussed by Sims, Sandlin, Pope and Singleton. Report on missions, having been made a special order for 9:30 a. m. was now taken up.

Report on Home Missions.

Great and powerful as are the forces antagonizing Christianity, and dark as the outlook sometimes seems to be, it is still true that the forces at the command of our religion were never before as potent and efficient as now, and never were so many Christians willing to lay down their lives for Christ as now. We find that the Home Mission Board has on the field 467 Missionaries and has accomplished the following work: The missionaries have labored 11,407 weeks, have in charge 1,960 churches, have delivered 49,306 sermons and addresses, They have 10,359 prayer meetings in progress, have made 59,841 religious visits, have baptised 4,739 converts, received 4,770 persons into the church by letter, making a total added to the church of 9,509. They have constituted 103 churches, built 45 houses of worship, improved 68 houses of worship, expended on houses of worship $59,629, organizing 297 Sunday schools which have 7,710 teachers and pupils in attendance, have distributed 4,668 Bibles and testaments and 1,580,741 tracts. Now let us rise from the contemplation of these statistics with more grateful hearts. We had 467 at work under our Home Board last year. They received a salary of about $144 each. Your committee believes that we should do more for this work. More money can be raised and should be. We believe that the support of missions is practical Christianity. Faith without works is dead, being alone.

Respectfully submitted, T. BLAIR, Chairman

Report on State Missions.

The cause of missions is the cause of God. Are we God's people? Do we love him? If so, we should honor him. God is honored and glorified in the salvation of souls. Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. It is our duty to disseminate the gospel. This is not intended to be read over hastily and carelessly thrown aside, but the urgent appeal is now made to you as a Christian, that if you love your Savior and have faith in him, you should show your faith by your works. True he says, "If ye love me keep my commandments." If you trust Him for salvation can you not trust Him with your means? Have faith in God!

"Oh make but a trial of his love

Experience will decide

How blest are they and only they

Who in his truth confide."

Honor the Lord with thy substance and with the first fruits of thine increase; so shall thy barns be filled with plenty. Do you believe this, my brother? Jacob's vow was to give one tenth of his income. What does our rule of faith and practice say? "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God has prospered him. How much owest thou my Lord. Now my dear brother or sister, if you have the mind to give and have not the means, ask the Lord for the means to give and when you secure it give where you think it will do the most good. By cultivating the spirit and habit of benevolence you will not only realize God's blessings upon yourself but will bestow upon others favors of incalculable worth, and you will grow to be a better man or woman by it. But oh! says someone, you are begging for money, salvation is free. Have you none of the spirit of mission about you? Then you have not the spirit of Christ and if you have not his spirit you are none of his. Every church should be a missionary band and carry out the missionary work. For what were you organized but to help extend the kingdom of Christ. Be no longer idle in the vineyard of the Lord, whatsoever is right he will give you. If but little here,

"Soon the joyful news will come
Child your father calls, come home."

Our churches are not supporting the ministry. They should be taught their duty in this respect, for if they remain as they are times will be no better. You will find it to be true, if you will pay your pastor better, you will have better preaching by those who supply your churches--with the scanty pay they get they cannot perform the duties of a pastor much less do any mission work. The foreign mission field is full of activity. The home and state mission boards are doing a noble work. Let us sustain them! Surely no member of this body will again oppose state missions after witnessing the effective work done by the foreign, home and state mission boards in the bounds of the Southern Baptist convention this summer. The work of missions is a work for the ages. The gospel at home and abroad is shedding its life-giving power. Are you lending a helping hand? "There is that that scattereth and yet increaseth, and there is that that withholdeth more than is meet, yet tendeth to poverty."

REUBEN T. EWING, Chairman

Report on Foreign Missions.

We insist that in carrying out the great commission of our Savior we have the special promise of the Holy Spirit, and realizing the great need of the Spirit in our every-day life, we think it is well for us to be very zealous in this work. We believe that God never asked anything of any people that was out of their power; therefore, if the four million Baptists in the United States would arise in their strength they could evangelize the world in a few years. But there are so many that say that they have a willing mind but are not able to give anything and pay their debts. To such we would say in the language of the Word: "Honor the Lord with thy substance and with the first fruits of all thine increase."

We know that in olden time there was a tithe required of all, both great and small, and it would be well for every one of us to remember the widow's mite and remember that the Savior has the same kind words for us if we would do likewise. Following is a tabulated statement of the work of last year carried on by the Southern Baptist Convention:

COUNTRIES.	Date of Organiza- tion	No. of Mission- aries	Native Assistants	No. of Churches	Baptisms in 1897	Member- ship
China	1845	40	43	21	208	1,499
Africa	1850	3	10	6	43	313
Italy	1870	1	25	21	55	481
Mexico	1880	13	17	32	101	1,132
Brazil	1882	13	15	21	283	1,274
Japan	1889	6	7	1	11	61
Total		76	117	102	701	4,760

Now, when we see that the work has been blessed by the saving of 701 souls in foreign fields and still the Macedonian cry is heard, can we afford to sit still, knowing that it is written "woe to them that are at ease in Zion."

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. GROGAN, Chairman.

These several reports on missions were discussed jointly by Sandlin, Whorton, Neyman and DeBerry. Pending this discussion the association adjourned to 1 o'clock p. m. Elder J. W. Sandlin preached a forcible and interesting sermon from the text: "Would a man rob God?" Malichi iii:8.

Second Day—Afternoon Session.

The Association re-assembled, and, after singing a hymn, was led in prayer by Brother D. N. Hampton, of Floyd County Association. Elder J. W. Pullen was welcomed as a correspondent from Floyd County Association.

The Association resumed the discussion of the reports on missions, which was further discussed by Elder J. W. Pullen, Singleton, Grogan and Sims, and then adopted.

Report on Temperance.

Your committee on temperance would submit the following report: It seems that enough has been said in former reports on this subject, and the discussions and resolutions by this Association in former sessions has been full enough and strong enough to accomplish something in the way of a remedy for the great evils of intemperance. But if there has been any effect, if the evils so justly depicted have been to any great extent abated, we have not been able to detect it.

We do not deem it necessary to call attention to the statistics which has so often been produced showing that our people spend more for intoxicating drinks than they do for food or clothing, or for the support of the schools, colleges or churches in the country. Of course these figures and facts are astounding, still they remain to be facts notwithstanding we have resolved and discussed for years.

It does seem strange that an intelligent people would go on with a knowledge of these things and no concerted effort to correct so great an evil and remove the greatest curse that rests upon our land.

Time will not permit me to mention all this phases of this question, but anyone of a great many that could be mentioned is sufficient to impel us to some effort to do our duty. God's word says that no drunkard shall enter Heaven and that cursed is he that putteth the bottle to his neighbors lips. This is enough; this alone should decide every Christian to oppose by every means possible the use, as a beverage, or the traffic to dispose of this blighting curse.

Now let us act; we have resolutely and discussed enough, let us as individuals teach our children to shun the intoxicating cup that it will wreck his fortune and in the end damn his soul.

Let us as churches teach our people that this evil costs us more than all our churches and schools and more than doubles our taxes. Let us be consisted in our prayers and in our actions. If we pray for just and sober and God-like men to rule over us and to file our offices let us vote accordingly, God will not bless a man that prays for one thing and votes for another. Let us pray, act and vote to relieve our country of this the greatest of all curses.

J. W. WHORTON, Chairman.

The report was ably discussed by Sandlin, Cromer, Pullen, Hampton, Grogan, Sims Blair, Roberts, Hardin, Pope, Davis and unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Committee on preaching reported that Elder, Thos. Blair would preach at the church to-night, the report was concurred in. The association joined brother J. M. DeBerry in prayer and then adjourned to 8 o'clock tomorrow morning

Third Day—Morning Session.

The association was promptly called to order at 8 o'clock a. m. by the moderation who read the 12th chapter of Romans after which the association joined W. W. Grogan in prayer and then proceeded to business. Renewed call for reports of standing committees.

Report on Revivals.

We regret to learn through the letters, that some of the churches have had no revivals, while others have been wonderfully blessed, for which we are thankful.

Brethern, we have found, in our experience, that a great many times the church sets still and waits for the preacher to get up a revival, but we have also found that to be a failure. But when the church takes hold with the preacher a revival is sure to follow, by the church being blessed and sinners convicted and mourners converted, and the Lord glorified.

W. W. GROGAN, Chairman.

The report was discussed by Grogan, Sims and Blair, and then adopted.

Brother White, principal of the Hearn School, at Cave Spring, Ga., was recognized and welcomed to the privileges of the body.

The committee on finance made their report as follows, which was adopted :

Report on Education.

We note with pleasure the progress in educational work in Cherokee county within the past few years, but we realize with regret that we are yet behind some of our neighboring counties. We believe some of the evils that greatly retard the progress of our public schools are lack of organization, lack of sufficient school revenue and a hearty co-operation of parents with teachers. We recommend that our brethren educate their children in the schools of the county, as far as practicable and that we encourage longer terms by suppling the public funds. We feel that the Baptist cause in the state of Alabama demands that we support Baptist schools in higher education, but the cause of education demands that our public schools should be non-denominational. We believe that the world will be brought to Christ through intelligence and that educated gentlemen and ladies make more effective church workers. History teaches us that nations that have attained the highest degree of intelligence have reached the highest type of Christianity. To sustain schools that our brethren and the state at large may point to with pride. We need to divest ourselves of prejudice and of that natural self interest which so often blinds us to the best interest of our fellows. Respectfully submitted, E. BURNS, Chairman

The report was ably discussed before adoption, by White, Burns, Pullen and Sandlin.

ABSTRACT OF PRINCIPLES.

1. We believe in one only true and living God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and these three are one.
2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God, and are, therefore, the only rule of faith and practice.
3. We believe in the doctrines of election, and that God chose his people in Christ before the foundation of the world, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth.
4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.
5. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by nature by his own ability.
6. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the merits of Christ by imputation.
7. We believe the saints will persevere in grace and never finally fall away.
8. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the subjects, and that baptism is immersion.
9. We believe in the resurrection of the dead and the general judgment.
10. We believe the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joys of the righteous eternal.
11. We believe that no person has a right to the administration of the ordinances but those who are regularly baptized, called and come under the imposition of hands by a presbytery.
12. We believe that none but regularly baptized members have a right to commune at the Lord's table.

RULES OF DECORUM.

6. The Moderator, when addressed for leave to speak, shall signify the same by naming him or otherwise.

8. Every case taken up by the Association shall be first decided on or withdrawn before others are offered.
9. When anything is taken up the Association, after allowing time for debate, the Moderator shall take the question by yeas and nays.
10. The Moderator shall pronounce the decision of the body immediately after it is decided.

11. No person shall depart the service of the Association without leave.

12. The appellation of brother shall be used in our addresses to one another.

13. The names of the members shall be called as often as the Association may direct.

14. No member shall be allowed to indulge in any practice that has a tendency to interrupt in time of a public speech.

15. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privileges of speech as any other member, provided he appoints some other to his seat while he is speaking; but shall not vote unless the Association is equally divided.

16. Any member breaking this decorum shall be reprov'd at the discretion of the Association, but only on the day on which the breach is made.
